SUBSCRIPTION—2.00 PER YEAR

BAY ST. LOUIS, MISS., FRIDAY, AUGUST 8, 1952

Observations... By UDELL

Vacation days are near the end. E. E. Breland, County Superintendent of Education, has announced that Hancock County School Board has set the opening date for the 1952-53 term of all public schools in the county for Friday, September 5, 1952. All students are required to report for registration on this day. Mother Blanche, superior of St. Joseph Academy, has announced that registration for their pupils will be held Thursday and Friday, August 21 and 22, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, and from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. School will start Thursday, September 4, at 9:00 a.m. All boarders are required to report Wednesday, September 3, before 8:00 p.m. St. Stanislaus, which registered its students this week, will resume classes Wednesday, September 3, at 8:40 a.m. and the St. Stanislaus Day School, which will be reopened this year, will start the new term Wednesday, September 3, at 8:40 a.m.

The Advance Planning Committee of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, was pleased with the public interest shown in their recent ballot. Not every citizen, who would have the interest of his community at heart, has the time to vote. We are printing the ballot again this week so that everyone will have an opportunity on voting for what they think the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce should undertake as their project. A widespread interest was noted by the committee in a new, modern and well-equipped library for the County. This strong sentiment in favor of such a project resulted from the recent poll asking for a statement of preferences on various projects on the ballot. One good suggestion was to erect a library as a memorial to the men and women of Hancock County who served their Country in the great wars, came in as a result of this poll. The final result of this poll was a selection by the citizens of a sewerage project as their number one choice. Following this selection, the C of C is now working toward realization of a sewerage system for Bay St. Louis.

The Hancock County Council for Youth and Children will hold its regular meeting at the Coast Electric building, Monday, August 11, at 4:00 p.m. All members and others interested in the youth are invited to attend.

As voters we've been getting worse since 1880. This fact was brought to our attention in a recent release sent out by the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association. According to this bit of news, 78.4% of eligibles voted in 1880; in 1900, 73.5%; in 1920, the first election in which women were given the right to vote, only 49.3% of the eligible votes were cast. In 1940, 53.4%, and in 1948, 51.9%. In the 1948 national election, 48,680,416 votes were cast (the biggest total ever) but that was only 51% of the eligibles. Only 20% vote in local elections. That's the national average for recent municipal, county, state and congressional elections. More than 28,000,000 citizens aren't even registered to vote (or weren't as of January 1, 1952). Other countries have put us to shame in voting percentages. During the same period that we cast 51% in a national election, countries such as Belgium, Italy, England, Sweden, Canada, Israel and Japan cast from 71 to 90% of their eligible votes. With these figures in mind, every voter should make it a point to go to the polls for the election set for August 26, and for the presidential election in November. The right to vote is a privilege that we have and many citizens of other countries wished they had.

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors awarded a contract this week to Roger Heltzman, contractor, for the repair of 225 feet of the seawall south of the present highway bridge. His low bid was in the amount of $33.40 per lineal foot.

The Parks and Playground Commission of the City of Bay St. Louis has installed playground equipment in Cedar Point on the property at the corner of Julia and Dunbar. Mr. Picard loaned this property to the City for this purpose. New Playground equipment has also been installed on the South side of the Bay St. Louis bridge to replace that destroyed by young vandals. The construction company has completed the road project with approximately 115,000 square yards of seal coat placed on various streets in the City.

CONGRESSMAN W. M. COLMER ANNOUNCES FOR RE-ELECTION

The Sea Coast Echo is authorized to announce today to the citizens of Hancock County the candidacy of Congressman Bill Colmer for re-election in the Primary on August 26.

His personal message follows: TO THE SOVEREIGN VOTERS OF THE SIXTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI:

Now that the Congress has adjourned and the Democratic National Convention is history, I take this opportunity to make formal announcement of my candidacy for re-election as your Representative in the Congress of the United States.

When I asked your suffrage in my first race for this high office, I made only one promise: to represent my district, my state, and my nation to the very best of my ability. I have conscientiously kept that pledge.

On the basis of my service, you returned me to Congress two years later, and you have from time to time since then expressed your approval in a most gracious way of my efforts in your behalf and my record as your representative in the Halls of Congress.

Throughout my entire service as your Representative in the American Congress I have striven to place duty above self and country above party. Today our young Republic is at the crossroads; it is faced with the most momentous problems in its history in both its domestic and foreign policies. Vital decisions affecting the very existence of the Republic and the freedom of free men throughout the world must be made in the next few years.

With a grateful heart for your past suffrage; with no desire for self-aggrandizement, but with a fervent hope that during the next two years I can contribute something to the perpetuation of a free America, I humbly submit myself for re-election as your Congressman in the August 26th Primary.

BILL COLMER

Congressman Colmer is completing his tenth term, is a senior member of the powerful Rules Committee, and is the chairman of the informal but potent House Southern Group. NEWSWEEK, a national magazine, sometime ago named him as one of the three Members with whom "ultimate control" in the House rests. "Bill Colmer is one of the real leaders in Congress," the Jackson Daily News said recently. "He is a leader not merely because of his position, but because of his leadership, that cause other members to put full faith and confidence in his judgment." Such recognition has come to Colmer through hard work, devotion to duty, and seniority. He is no publicity-seeker. Modest, far-sighted, and industrious, he simply sees a job to be done and without fanfare, does it. Enjoying the confidence and respect of all of his colleagues, both Democrats and Republicans, he accomplishes results with a genius for organization.

COLMER A LEADER

Typical of this leadership is the fact that he was responsible for and Chairman of the 18-man postwar Policy Committee, which was the first Congressional group to recognize the danger of Soviet aggression. It was Bill Colmer in 1945 who first called the attention of the Congress and the country to the fact that Russia respected nothing but firmness and force and demanded an abandonment of the appeasement policy. It was the same South Mississippian who, the day after Russia suggested a truce in Korea, arose in the House and warned his colleagues, "This is nothing but a Trojan Horse—Russia is playing for time."

Again, it was Bill Colmer who in 1948 organized and became Chairman of the Southern Group to fight Truman's FEPC and other anti-Southern force bills. A similar group in the Senate is headed by Russell of Georgia. Under the leadership in the Senate of Senator Russell and Congressman Colmer in the House, not a single piece of the President's "Civil Wrongs" program has been enacted into law.

In yet a third field, Bill Colmer more than two years ago organized the Economy Block, which was responsible for the killing of the President's new tax bill and the slashing of more than ten billion dollars from the Truman Budget.

CUT WASTE AND THEREBY CUT TAXES

"Seldom has the economy issue been 'laid on the line' in Congress as it was on March 19 by Rep. William M. Colmer (D-Miss.)," said the Tax Foundation's Washington News, and TAX-OUT-LOOK, a monthly magazine, featured the same speech as its lead article.

"Mississippi's Congressman Bill Colmer has won himself a spot in the heart of the taxpayers of the nation," the New Orleans STATES asserted, and praise of Colmer's ten-point economy program echoed from Massachusetts to Montana.

"Due almost single-handedly to the efforts of Rep. William M. Colmer (D-Miss.), one of the conservative leaders of the South," THE COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL CHRONICLE said in its Washington Column, legislation to set up a Joint Committee on the Budget was reported out of committee over the active opposition of the Administration and the Appropriations Committee, which was jealous of its own prerogatives. The bill, authored jointly by Senator McClellan and Congressman Colmer, was resigned to give Congress its own staff of budget experts.

MISSISSIPPI PRESS PRAISES RECORD

The press of the Magnolia State, not to be outdone by outsiders in praising a home product, extolled Colmer's record in Congress in superlative terms:

"Colmer is doing an excellent job in Washington. He is a credit to us."

"He is respected by all who know him. He is a normal, right-minded person, accessible to any and all who call on him, courageous in the expression of opinion, when courage is called for, and tactful and considerate of the feelings of others when tact and consideration are needed."

LAUREL CALL

And THE GULF COAST TIMES in Jackson County, home of both Colmer and his opponent, sized up the approaching election this way:

"It appears that Congressman 'Bill' is going to have some company in his race for re-election to the House of Representatives from this district but we can hardly dignify it as opposition."

"Bill Colmer shouldn't have to worry much and should go back to Washington with complete endorsement of this district."

"If ever a man earned the right, Bill Colmer has done so by his work in Washington, his meticulous attention to the wishes of his constituents at home and by his steady growth as a man of vision, power and decision, in a day when these qualities are rare and much needed."

awarded the $300,000.00 grading and drainage contract to Lacoste Inc., last week.

The contract calls for the dirt approaches to be built to both ends of the bridge proper and to connect present U.S. Highway 90 at Bay St. Louis with Henderson Point.

Oil Exploration Reaches 8300 Feet

The annual tagging for support of the Hancock County Library will take place on the streets of Bay St. Louis and Waveland Saturday, August 16.

Once a year citizens of this county are asked for funds to continue and expand the services of our library, and hopes are high that this August will bring record contributions.

The overwhelming approval shown the library project by votes on the recent Chamber of Commerce survey indicates real interest on the part of thinking citizens, who obviously realize that making worthwhile books available to young and old is a service of incalculable value in any progressive community.

If you are not planning to be downtown Saturday, August 16, and would like to add your share to the support of your library, please turn on your porch light the night before at 7:00 o'clock. Boy Scouts will call at your door from 7:00 to 8:00 o'clock Friday night to receive your contribution and to thank you for your help.

Drilling on Mississippi's first offshore oil exploration has been continued to below 8300 feet. The exploration, the No. 1 State of Mississippi, is a joint venture of Gulf Refining Co. and Melben Oil Co., located at Grand Island Pass about six miles southwest of Clermont Harbor in the Mississippi Sound off Hancock County. The operating rig, standing 136 feet high on a converted LST base 250 by 60 feet, is the climax of an exhaustive study of the sound by Gulf and Melben geologists since last October.

A 30-man crew operating from a small fleet of boats took six months to complete the "shooting" of the area, the largest seismic survey ever conducted in the state. The area surveyed involved about 6300 shots covering 828-line miles—extending from the Gulf of Mexico to the chain of islands. During construction of the platform, about 75 foot piles were driven 40 feet deep into the sound to support the operation.

Brother Of Local Resident Expires

Andrew Jackson Higgins Sr., 66 years old brother of Frank Higgins of Bay St. Louis and New Orleans, died in Hotel Dieu Friday, August 1, after a brief illness. One of the nation's leading builders of small boats, Mr. Higgins rose to prominence during World War II when he mass-produced many types of boats and landing crafts for the military and naval forces.

He headed Higgins Inc., situated on the Industrial Canal at Highway 90, and during World War II his varied activities also occupied the huge Michoud plant where atomic bomb parts were assembled. Funeral services were held from the P. J. McMahon Funeral Home Saturday, August 2.

A native of Columbus, Nebraska, he was born August 28, 1886, the youngest of 10 children. When he was 6, his family moved to Omaha where he attended school. Though he was reared inland, he "foaled with boats" from the time he built his first, Annie O, in his father's basement at the age of 12.

Mr. Higgins attended Creighton university but left before he received his degree. He was called back in 1943 and given and honorary LL.D. degree.

Mr. Higgins moved to New Orleans in 1910 from Mobile where he was engaged in the lumber business.

Survivors include his widow and children, Andrew J. Higgins Jr., Frank O. Higgins, Roland C. Higgins, Mr. Charles S. Dana and Mrs. Robert A. Murphy Jr., and his brothers and sisters.

Holy Name Plans Fish Fry August 22

Plans were made for a fish fry and shrimp boil Friday, August 22, in City Park, by members of the Holy Name Society at a special meeting Tuesday, August 5.

Plans were also made to obtain funds for a Holy Name banner. Monsignor A. J. Gmelch and Rev. Father Hugh Taylor were in attendance with a large group of members at this meeting.

PLAN BANQUET FOR BAY TEAM

The Bay St. Louis Junior Baseball team will be honored at a banquet Wednesday, August 13 at the "Driftwood" on Coleman avenue in Waveland.

The Rebels, a city sponsored organization, ended their initial season with a record of 8 wins against 6 losses.

Guest speaker for the occasion will be Harry Martinez, former Sports Editor of the New Orleans Item.

Monsignor A. J. Gmelch will deliver the invocation and Mayor Warren Carver will act as toastmaster.

Other sports celebrities to be present are Vince Rizzo, a scout for the Chicago Cubs of the National League and Frank Girard, Senior Umpire of the Southern Association.

A tape recording will be made of the banquet and will be broadcast by WNOB. The broadcast will be sponsored by George diBenedetto.

Native Of Logtown Dies On July 31

Alto Herbert Casanova, husband of Arlene Comfort, died at his home in Baton Rouge Thursday, July 31, at 3:55 a.m.

A native of Logtown, Mr. Casanova had resided in Baton Rouge for the past 27 years. He was 58 years of age.

Funeral services were held from the Reberhoffer parlor Saturday, August 2, at 9:45 a.m. with religious rites at the First Methodist church at 10:00 a.m. Interment was in Roselawn Memorial Park.

He is survived, in addition to his widow, by his sisters, Mrs. J. E. Halpin, Miss Caroline Casanova and Mrs. J. P. Osborn, and his brothers, Otis B. Casanova and William X. Casanova.

C of C Asks Everyone To Cast Ballot For Improvement Projects

In response to their recent appeal of civic improvement plans, the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's Advance Planning committee received the following list of projects:

The list has been made available in ballot form so that the citizens of the County may choose from, or add to, this worthy enterprise.

A large number responded to the first balloting; once again, the C of C is asking that those who did not vote on the first ballot do so now.

Comedy Promises Much for Audience

Written by Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," the next Little Theatre production, will keep its audiences on August 14, 15 and 16, in a high state of glee.

This hit comedy is to be presented at the Little Theatre on Boardman avenue, and the opening curtain will rise at 8:15 p.m. Dealing with the hilarious escapades of Emily and Cornelia on a trip to Europe, the plan contains many grand and wonderful moments.

Still on shipboard, the girls have an exciting adventure with a stowaway, mistake the leader of the ship's band for an admiral, take all sorts of fancy sea sick remedies and then meet two handsome medical students.

While Cornelia is posing about her mysterious past, Emily is checking up on the life boats. Since she is not certain which is hers, she deposits cookies in all of them.

These are just a few of the wonderful moments which will keep audiences laughing next week. Tickets will be sold at the door of the Theatre on Boardman avenue.

K. C.'s To Observe Founders' Day

The Pere Le Duc Council No. 1522 Knights of Columbus will celebrate Founders' Day August 12 with a supper at the K. C. home at 8:00 p.m.

At this time, all past Grand Knights will receive a certificate showing the year of service.

Wives of members are invited to attend.

Entertainment is being planned for this affair.

What is said to be one of the finest five year old tung groves in the United States will be open to visitors Friday, August 22, and Saturday, August 23. Visitors to this grove have estimated the crop this year in this five year old tung grove from one to five tons per acre.

On these two days, August 22 and August 23, everybody interested in tung oil is invited to visit this grove and go over it, and then make an estimate of crop now on the trees.

The person guessing closest to the number of nuts on the 45 acre grove will be given $50 in cash; the second place, $30 in cash, and the third $20 in cash.

This grove located on the Caesar to Neale road two miles east of the cross road where the Caesar to Neale road crosses the Leotown to Anney road.

R. B. Jones of the Crosby Tung Mill will determine the number of pounds of nuts delivered to the mill from this grove and the awards of the cash prizes will be made based on these figures.

This 45 acre tung grove is an exceptionally fine one and it will be worth your time to visit display facilities

In order to work as closely as possible with the Commission Council on plans for a sewerage system for Bay St. Louis, the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce announced the selection of an Advisory Committee to assist the City in various ways until such time as plans for a sewerage system have been completed.

Members of this committee named by Homer Gregory, president of the Chamber of Commerce are Walter J. Gex Jr., Leo W. Seal, T. T. Robin and C. C. McDonald. The committee members stated that they would cooperate in every way possible with the City Council in pushing this project through to its completion.

The selection of a sewerage system as a number one project for the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce was a result of a recent citizens' poll through the operation of the local newspapers. The majority of those sending in their ballots voted for this project.

Maufrays Leave For Mexico Tour

Mrs. Alden L. Maufray and son, Larry, will leave Saturday on the third pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City. They will be away from Bay St. Louis for two weeks.

The Rt. Rev. Monsignor Charles J. Plauché, Chancellor, will be the spiritual director of the pilgrimage, which has the approval of the Most Rev. J. F. Kummel, Archbishop of Orleans.

Some of the pilgrims will leave by bus August 9 including the Maufrays by train. August 10 and by plane August 11. The return trip will start August 23.

Every effort is being made for Monsignor Plauché to offer Mass for the pilgrims at the high altar of the Guadalupe shrine August 15. Feast of the Assumption. The group will also have an audience with the Most Rev. Luis Martinez Archbishop of Mexico, D. F.

The pilgrimage allows for 13 days' stay in Mexico, including visits to a number of places of interest. Besides seeing centers and institutions in and near Mexico City, such as the Cathedral, the national palace, a museum, the famous volcanoes, Palace of Cortes, and old convents, the group will stop in Cuernavaca, Cholula, Puebla, Cordoba, Orizaba, Fortin and Tehuacan.

Mrs. Haas' Mother Expires Sunday

Mrs. Nellie Goodson Durrett died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Norton Haas, Sunday, August 3, at 7:30 p.m., following an illness of almost a year.

The body was taken from the Fahey Funeral Home Monday to 622 N. Second street, Columbus, Miss.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon with the rites in the Baptist church. Interment was in Friendship cemetery, Columbus. Arrangements were in charge of Gunther Funeral Home.

Survivors include her daughter, Mrs. Haas, of Bay St. Louis; a sister, Mrs. J. F. Longmire, Orlando, Fla.; and four grandchildren.

A native of Alabama, Mrs. Durrett was born December 13, 1872. She resided in Columbus for the greater part of her life.

It is seen what can be done to make a big production of tung nuts at low cost. Remember the dates, August 22 and 23, from 8 A. M. to 5 P. M. each day, when guides will be present to show visitors over the grove.

Comic Books vs Education

Today, the parents of our youth are waging a battle of comic books vs education.

Children of all ages reach for a comic book in preference to the books that the older generation read and enjoyed in their youth.

Stories of hate, murder and robbery are being placed in the minds of teen-agers and even smaller children through this medium when they should be reading and enjoying the stories of HUCKLEBERRY FINN, ROBINSON CRUSOE, LITTLE WOMEN and other famous volumes.

It is up to the parents in the community to support their library and help the librarians bring better literature into the County for the use of their young ones.

Our Bay St. Louis-Hancock County library is one of our most needed institutions in these days and times. It serves a great purpose. It is the medium of self education which offers much pleasure and rich profits to young and old—it is a treasure chest of good reading.

The library, which was founded in 1933 and was supported with W. P. A. funds, now depends on the City, County and you, the people it serves, for funds.

Our librarians, who are only paid meagre salaries, have devoted a lifetime to securing some of the best books published for our people.

Their task is indeed a great one, and it is upon you that they must depend for the funds necessary for running an establishment of this type.

In order to raise funds, which at this time are much needed, Saturday, August 16, has been designated as TAG DAY for the library. Volunteer workers on this day will appeal to you for donations. Before you, as parents and adult readers, offer your contribution give some thought to the good this institution is doing your County, then measure your donation accordingly.

It is only through your support that the Library is able to bring volumes into its walls for the benefit of the youth who are trying to educate.

Miss Amelia Manieri, J. O. Blount Pronounce Vows Sunday, August 3

The vows of holy matrimony were pronounced Sunday, August 3, at 3:00 p.m. between Miss Amelia (Mitzie) Manieri, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Manieri of Bay St. Louis, and James O. Blount, of Coushatta, La., son of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Blount.

Rev. Father Edward P. Desmond officiated at the double ring ceremony at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic church, before an altar decorated in white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Marie Bordage played the Bridal Chorus from Lehrengrren for the processional, accompanied by Mrs. Catherine Wilson and Miss Louise Armstrong at the violins. Mrs. Olga Ryan sang Ave Maria during the ceremony.

In a wedding gown of white lace and nylon net over satin, the bride was given in marriage by her father. The full net skirt fell in a short train, and the V-necked lace bodice was trimmed in seed pearls. The long sleeves were of lace. A lace peplum from the waist completed the gown.

The long veil of illusion was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms with a cluster of orange blossoms and pearls at the center of the coronet. She carried a cascade arrangement of blue and white flowers centered with white carnations.

Mrs. Vee Ford was her sister's matron of honor, bridesmaids were Mrs. Margaret Burns of Jackson and Miss Bobby Coleman of Bay St. Louis.

Their floor-length dresses of nylon net over satin were made with full skirts. Tiny net ruffles trimmed the fronts of the strapless bodices, and a net stole was worn across the back from shoulder to shoulder. They wore ruffled head pieces and short mits of the net.

Mrs. Ford's dress was pale green, and she carried an old fashioned bouquet of pale pink asters; Mrs. Burns wore light pink and carried an old fashioned bouquet of deeper pink asters. Miss Coleman's dress was blue and her bouquet was of deep pink asters.

Elaine and Peter Manieri, niece and nephew of the bride, wore flower girl and ring bearer. The flower girl's dress was made on the same lines as that of the bride.

Richard A. Linder of Utica, New York, was best man. Groomsmen were the bridegroom's brother, David H. Blount, New Orleans, and the bride's brother, Sidney A.

Answer To Criticism On Arrest Made Of Law Violators on Highway No. 11, Hancock County

To The Editor:

Because of the criticism directed at us by persons who do not seem to know the facts, we deem it necessary to answer this unfair criticism. The undersigned are the Justice of the Peace of Dist. No. 2 and the Deputy Sheriff of Hancock County.

We have been sworn to enforce the laws of the State of Mississippi. The principal law of the State is to protect life and limb on the highways. In attending the Circuit Courts of the County, one of the principal instructions by the Judge to the officers of the County is that "people driving automobiles" at a dangerous rate of speed are more dangerous than the pointing of a gun at an individual; that the amount of people killed on the highways are in many instances, due to the lack of the enforcement of the law. This is true as shown by the Highway accident reports from Jackson, Mississippi in one of the newspapers, dated July 24, to the effect that thirty (30) persons were killed on the highways, twenty-eight (28) of whom were in rural areas.

The road that we will herein-after refer to is in the rural section. We also wish to refer to the heading in the Times-Picayune, dated in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, July 15, by Francis C. Grevenberg, Superintendent of State Police of Louisiana in which he said that traffic deaths occur mostly in rural areas and he gave notice of the crack down in Louisiana on traffic violators. The two mile stretch of road which has been referred to in the newspaper is located between the "Y" and the Louisiana line and runs through Pearl River Swamp. The Manieri Jr.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held on the lawn of the Manieri home on Union street.

The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered cake topped with a bride and bridegroom standing before a background of a cluster of wedding bells.

Tea girls were Ray Lyn and Jerry Witter and Patricia Ford. Mrs. V. Ducoing presided at the punch bowl assisted by Mrs. Torre, Manieri, Mrs. Claire Raymond and Mrs. W. L. Bourgeois.

For traveling, the bride wore a navy lined dress with a navy and white pin strip jacket. Her hat was white and her accessories were navy and white. Following their wedding trip, the couple will live in Gulfport.

Mr. Blount is an instructor in radar at the Air Force base.

Members of the bridegroom's family coming for the wedding in addition to his parents and brother were Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Blount and children, Dorothy, Janis, Betty, Tommy and Michael of Coushatta, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Blount, Sherry Lynn, Richard and David of New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Shares, Pittsburg, Tenn.; and Jimmy Jenkins, Hagmann, Mexico.

road is made of a fill approximately 25 feet high and is only about 18 feet wide, on both sides of this road, or fill, are located posts with steel wire running through the posts to help keep vehicles on the road, and at this place the State Highway Department properly placed 25 mile limit signs. Please bear in mind that the State Highway Department then believed that this road and narrow bridges was and is a highly dangerous piece of road and should be travelled, not faster than 25 miles per hour; that the Highway Department made this regulation because of the many accidents on this particularly bad piece of road, in the past. About three months previous two men were killed on this same stretch of road. There are several narrow bridges. The signs put up by the State Highway Department as to 25 mile limit were large signs on the highway which were noticeable from great distances. Traffic is very heavy in the month of July on this stretch of road, particularly on the Fourth.

Hundreds of persons were cautioned without arrests; even though they exceeded the speed limit of a little more than 25 miles an hour they were permitted to continue. Those who were driving their car at high speed, in danger to life and limb, were arrested in all cases they were guilty and pleaded guilty; strange to say, not one of them took an appeal.

We wish to draw the attention of everyone interested that in no instances in this great amount of publicity did any one ever claim they were innocent. As a matter of fact, the report of the Legislative Committee admitted the offenders were guilty of violating the law. When a great amount of people violate the law and the officers do their duty and arrest, and convict them, it is charged that the officers are running a racket this is really a dilemma.

Much has been said about the fines and costs but no one can justly say that the Court was unfair; as a matter of fact in many instances some of the speeders should have been fined much more than One Dollar. The Mississippi State Highway Department was absolutely correct in placing a 25 mile limit on this fill, and for the Legislative Committee to say as long as these signs remain in this area the general public will be held up is untrue and a disregard of the safety of the travelling public. The State Legislative Committee takes the erroneous attitude that it is best to take the 25 mile limit signs down, thereby permitting the reckless drivers to kill and maim as they please on this narrow fill. It is definitely unfair to the travelling public to permit driving on that road at a greater speed than 25 miles an hour.

It is our belief that the condemnation brought down on our heads by the newspapers was because one of the principal violators was an employee of the Times Picayune, a New Orleans newspaper. Case No. 98 on the docket shows that that gentleman pleaded guilty; thereafter he threatened the Court with newspaper propaganda and dire consequences. He has only succeeded in encouraging reckless driving on this narrow road and bridges, and taking the signs down by the Highway Department, and let the fast drivers do as they please in between those wire guard rails. Rather than protect the public and require safe driving, newspaper propaganda has, therefore, resulted in encouraging reckless driving over one of the most dangerous pieces of road in the State of Mississippi at 60 miles an hour. Grave and serious traffic injuries will be caused on this piece of road and if anyone is killed, the State Highway Department and the Legislative Committee can say that it is through their fault in failing to require safe driving over a dangerous piece of road. To yield to law violators and to fail to prevent accidents on death's two mile alley is indeed a crime on the part of the persons who brought this about—wait and see. We invite anyone who may be interested to go near this piece of road, not on it because it would not be safe, then watch some of the drivers going by now at murderous and reckless speed. There were thousands of cars passing over this road daily that respected the 25 mile limit and drove their cars for the safety of the travelling public. The undersigned had absolutely nothing to do with fixing the speed limit on this piece of road, it was properly fixed by the Mississippi State Highway Department in the protection of life and limb. The public will not admire their judgment in reversing their finding by taking the 25 mile limit signs down.

The statement by the Legislative Committee that these arrests were made only because and after the gambling houses were closed was a blow below the belt, unfair, unfounded and untrue. The Legislative Committee has helped to re-establish high speed on this high, narrow fill and bridges, and it is their sin.

As definite proof thereof, the day after the signs were taken down, an accident occurred on this same piece of highway.

PASS CHRISTIAN NEWS PASS CLUB TO ESTABLISH WILD FLOWER GARDEN SOON

By MRS. JOE ALLEN

A tract of land located on a bay on the occasion of their daughter, Nancy's, eleventh birthday. Eleven young guests were invited - one for each year - they included: Misses Cynthia Melvin, Nancy Fant, Kathy Brandon, Margaret Ann Blackman, Patsy and Toni Truse, Kaye DeMets, Barbara Allen, Sylvia Smith. Unfortunately, Miss Lou Don Vigour, Nancy's cousin who was invited to represent the "year-to-grow-on," was ill and unable to attend the tea.

The guests were invited to participate in a "Talent Show" to compete for prizes. There were many varied song, dance and piano numbers. Since the judges were unable to make a decision as to the winner, all competitors were given prizes. The prizes ranged from China doll dishes to hand-painted fans and little gold mechanical pencils.

When the screen dividing the living and dining rooms was removed, the heart of each young guest thrilled to the sight of a real "Pink Tea." Lovely pink tapers glowed from silver candle-bras, delicately shaded pink punch was served from a crystal bowl. Jordan almonds were nestled in pink baskets, and candies, nuts and other refreshments were served on pink plates. Highlight of the interest was Nancy's "Birthday Cake," decorated in three shades of pink. Surrounding the plate were eleven pink roses. The guests opened "pink favors," and danced party hats.

On the location of the Wild Flower Garden is a cabin which is in need of repairs. It is thought that garden club members will put the cabin in condition in the near future.

Presently the club has 115 members and Mrs. Samuel Schwing, the incoming president, expects to have the Year Book ready for distribution within a few days.

On Tuesday morning, August 5, Miss Jeanne Knost was hostess to a group of 32 children who assembled in the East Room at Town Library for a story hour. Miss Knost selected the children from her library card file including those within a limited age range who frequently used facilities of the library.

Mrs. E. A. Allen, reader for the morning, selected a wide-range of material to bring variety into the program. Included in the readings were Little Black Sambo, Brer Fox and de Rabbit Trap from Uncle Remus, The Road to Donderderry from the book "Gabbby Gaffer's New Shoes." This book was a winner in the Julia Ellsworth Ford contest for encouragement of better style and literature. Poems from Romney Gay's Book; and an old fairy tale called "The Fig's Head Magician."

Following the stories Miss Knost served pink lemonade to her young guests. She was assisted in serving by Mrs. Haywood Hilliard and Miss Marjorie Knost.

Children enjoying the event included Caroline McCollister, Janice Noto, Sharon Luker, Joan Daley, Janet French, Dianne Griffin, Suzan French, Pat Erwin, Lynn Herman, Joanne Aubley, Joe Allen, Billy McCollister, Peggy Neacise, Johnny Knost, Lola Ann Knost, Sharon Phelan, Danny Phelan, Danny Romelli, Ronald Daley, Vincent Marquez, Rose Vetter, Lynn Wittmann, Penny Hillyer, Barbara Allen, Billy Allen, Lelia Bourdin, Allen Arnold and Shannon Pickich.

W S B Approves Telephone Worker Wage Increase

The Wage Stabilization Board today approved a joint Company-Union petition for wage increases for 50,000 Southern Bell employees in the South, including more than $3.50 in Mississippi. These increased wages are retroactive to June 8.

"There is no margin in Southern Bell's Mississippi income," to absorb additional costs," T. M. Phillips, Acting Mississippi Manager, said. "When telephone rates in Mississippi were established in October 1951, the amount of additional revenue made effective at the time provided only the very minimum level of earnings. The new wage level just approved will reduce our already inadequate earnings to an even lower level."

WIND AND RAIN STORM UPROOTS TREES; LIGHTS AND PHONES AFFECTED

According to Mayor Francis Hursey, city employees are just completing a clean-up job made necessary when a sudden wind and rain storm hit Pass Christian late Friday afternoon, July 27, blowing over ten trees and sending innumerable large limbs hurtling to the ground.

The Mississippi Power Company reported extensive repairs following the wind damage when virtually all street light bulbs had to be replaced. There was also a series of "trouble calls" where residences were without electric service. The crew, however, was able to re-establish service within an hour or two following each report and consumers were not seriously inconvenienced.

The telephone company, likewise, ran into difficulties where falling trees and limbs of trees damaged wires. A large tree fell in the Trinity Episcopal Church grounds and some 70 to 75 telephones were put out of order. A crew of telephone repairmen hastened to the scene immediately and worked throughout the night. By 6:00 o'clock the following morning all telephones, with the exception of six were restored to operation.

Owners of small skiffs and barges turned beach-combers to find their vessels which had broken en mooring, however, the harbor of the Pass Christian Yacht Club rode out the gale without incident.

Crews in all fields of public service are to be commended upon an outstanding job of efficiency restoring conditions to normalcy.

Ms. and Mrs. W. W. Denton, newcomers to Pass Christian purchased a home at 1025 East Beach.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

A regular meeting of the Independent Hope Hook and Ladder Fire Company No. 1 was held Tuesday evening at the company's premises corner Union and Second Streets. The annual election of officers was held, with the following results:

Richard Mendes, president; Charles G. Moreau, vice president; L. Spoto, treasurer; E. G. Garabed, secretary; H. R. Piccaluga, foreman; L. Laurent, first assistant foreman; Charles Hillen, second assistant foreman; and F. Laurent, steward.

The company is in a flourishing condition, with its finances never at such a "high water" mark as at present. It is one of the objects of the company to raise sufficient funds to begin the erection of a hall, with the proceeds reasonably anticipated from Garabed's Grounds. It is the object of the company's project will soon be an accomplished fact.

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO
The Gulf Coast Association which is sponsoring an appeal to the lines of the famous Louisville and Nashville Railroad for the continuance of commuters to the coast, will hold a special meeting Friday, August 8, at the Bay High School auditorium. This meeting is of vital interest to both business and professional men as well as commuters and it is the duty of all citizens to attend.

A hearing on the issue has been scheduled by the Interstate Commerce Commission for August 21. Continuance of the present schedule and terms have been ordered by the ICC effective through February 1948.

ONE YEAR AGO

The County Democratic Executive Committee met Wednesday morning at 10:00 o'clock to canvass the returns of the election held Tuesday. The committee has been called back into session for a meeting Friday morning to hear the petition of Peter C. Fayard for a recount of all of the boxes in Beat 5 in the Justice of the Peace race.

Forrest Z. Goss Jr., candidate for Supervisor Beat 4, is asking for a recount of the votes for Supervisor in this beat in the Kilm and Fenton boxes.

He received only 12 votes less than the second man, Lander H. Necaize.

D. C. Smith, incumbent and candidate for re-election for the office of Justice of the Peace, Beat 2, is asking for a recount of the votes for the office in this beat.

County Agent's Notes

By HOWARD SIMMONS

HOG PARASITES

Don't let unthrifty, wormy hogs waste high priced corn this fall. Get rid of those worms now.

Hogs that are infected with round worms are usually runty, run down and generally in an unthrifty condition. The round worms will retard the growth of pigs for about five weeks.

Sanitation is the first step towards controlling round worms in pigs. Wash the sow's udder, make sure that the farrowing pen is clean. Scrub it with lye mixture using one pound of lye to 25 pounds of hot water.

If you have movable farrowing pens, move them to fresh uninfested pastures. Rotation of hog pastures will give some control.

Worm pigs two to four weeks after weaning. Sodium fluoride will do a good job of worming pigs.

Mix one teaspoonful of sodium fluoride with the dry feed for one pig. About 75 pigs, 35 pounds each, can be wormed by mixing one pound of sodium fluoride with 100 pounds of dry feed.

Slightly underfeed the pigs the day before treatment, then give them all they will eat of the mixture for one day. Next day, go back to regular feeding.

Caution: Never feed sodium fluoride in slop, milk or wet feed. It may kill young pigs.

HOME GARDENING

Now is the time to begin getting ready for a good fall garden. Clean out the plot and get rid of all grass and weeds. These use up moisture and plant food.

Vegetables to be planted in August and early September include pole and bush snap beans, bush lima beans, beets, carrots, Swiss chard, Chinese cabbage, head and leaf lettuce, collards, turnips, mustard, tender greens and tomato plants or suckers.

Leafy vegetables such as lettuce and greens should be planted during the latter part of August or early September. Tomatoes and bush lima beans should be planted in early August.

Other August jobs in the home garden include cleaning off rows that have stopped producing; insect control, and the staking of bean pole and wire for next season. A tip on August planting: If the soil is dry, open a deep trench, fill with water, sow seed and cover with dry soil.

BEEF CATTLE

Are you thinking of entering the beef cattle business? Or perhaps, staying in it? If so you should consider carefully these four items:

1. Is your farm large enough to grow the grasses and other roughages to support a beef cattle enterprise of sufficient size to materially increase your volume of business?
2. Do you like to work with cattle?
3. Do you need to use limited labor to a better advantage throughout the year? If you have plenty of labor, perhaps a dairy enterprise might be better suited to your farm.
4. Do you have, or can you get the necessary management skill to make a success of raising beef cattle?

If you can answer yes to all four of these questions, raising beef cattle probably fits into your farming business. If you are not now in the cattle business, don't plan to buy into it, take it easy and gradually grow into it.

Let the People Decide!

The Mississippi prohibition law has bred unsatisfactory conditions in certain parts of the state.

The Mississippi Legislature in its 1952 session recognized this fact. As a result, the Legislature authorized a state-wide referendum on August 26 to allow the people of each county to decide how they would solve this critical problem.

In this August 26 election the people will vote on the following proposition:

- A. For allowing counties upon petition of 20% of the qualified electors to vote for or against legalizing the sale of intoxicating liquor of an alcoholic content of more than 4% alcohol by weight. (X)
- B. Against allowing counties upon petition of 20% of the qualified electors to vote for or against legalizing the sale of intoxicating liquor of an alcoholic content of more than 4% alcohol by weight. ()

The issue is crystal clear. County option is the only issue. Your vote FOR Proposition A allowing county Home Rule will simply give the people of each of Mississippi's 82 counties the right to do what they desire in the future. A county can remain as is or at some later date it can decide to hold a local option election.

If a majority of Mississippi voters, on August 26, approve Proposition A, it will NOT mean that any county MUST hold a local option election at a later date. A local option election CANNOT be held unless 20% of the county's voters petition for such an election.

Not a drop of legal liquor can be sold in Mississippi as a result of the August 26 election. This fact has been established beyond question by a ruling of the Office of the Attorney General of Mississippi. This ruling follows:

"The results of the referendum will have no effect upon our present prohibition laws. Even though the entire state should, by a majority vote, favor the proposition stated, the prohibition laws will remain in full force and effect until changed by the legislature by future action."

In other words, the Attorney General's office has said that approval of Proposition A only allows later county option elections if and when 20% of the voters of a county desire such an election.

States. Mississippi has gone on record as being opposed to such intolerant and undemocratic invasion of states' rights and Home Rule.

The very same democratic principle is at stake in the August 26 election.

The Mississippi Legislature had the authority to repeal Mississippi's prohibition law and immediately legalize liquor in every county in the state. But the Legislature, abiding by the democratic principles of HOME RULE, recognized the right of the people of each county to decide what they want to do on this question.

BECAUSE... we firmly endorse the democratic principle of County Rights and Home Rule.

BECAUSE... we believe that the time has come to give back to the people in each county their democratic right to handle the liquor issue in the light of their own reason and judgment based on local conditions, and

BECAUSE... we believe this referendum is the only fair and sensible way to meet this problem,

THEREFORE... we, as voters of Mississippi, have joined together in a CITIZENS' COMMITTEE FOR HOME RULE AND LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT.

We urge all citizens of Mississippi—whether wet or dry—to join with us on August 26 and vote FOR Proposition A to allow the people of each county to decide their own local problems as they see fit.

August 17th, 1952, for making the following repairs or converting the building now owned by Hancock County and located on Nease Avenue, (as per plans and specifications on file in the Chancery Clerk's office) in the City of Bay St. Louis, which entails the following:

- PLAN NO. 1. SPECIFICATIONS FOR AGRICULTURAL CENTER BUILDING
1. All doors 3 x 7 (Panel).
 2. Double doors at general entrance, each 3 x 7. Heavy solid wood.
 3. Single doors at general entrance, each 3 x 7 feet. Heavy solid wood.
 4. Add double windows in front Welfare Office on north side same as other windows, same size as other windows on north

5. Triple windows 30 inches from floor, centered in Home Demonstration's Office and also triple windows centered in Extension Reception Office—these also being 30 inches from the floor. Minimum size 32 inches, each.
6. Take out large single window in County Agents Office and put in twin windows, centered between wall and door at other side; these windows being 30 inches from the floor, minimum size 32 inches each.
7. Overhead Extension reception Office and plaster entire room with 1/2 inch plaster coating.
8. Over head Home Demonstration Agents Office, leaving cork up as insulation if possible.
9. Build steps to back auditorium room and add railing on the left side.
10. Re-swing men's toilet door at railing so it will open on the inside.
11. All partitions to be built of sheet rock and ceiled on one side only.
12. Repair and level entire floor

13. All added windows to have weights.
14. Build up and cement floor in County Extension Reception Office.
15. Repair all holes in ceiling and walls.
16. Close up various odd openings in building not needed and also door openings where plan does not call for a door.
17. Take down side shed at County Agents Office and put stoop over the door to keep rain out.
18. Put stoop over general entrance and over door at front entrance to keep rain out.
19. Finish dark room on inside in F. H. A. Office to dark room and install on west and north side.
20. Move work bench and sink in F. H. A. Office to dark room and install on west and north side.
21. No repairs to be made on auditorium and conference room at this time.

NOTE: These specifications cover repairs for the building only. Wiring, plumbing and heating plans to be separate.

PLAN NO. 2. WIRING SPECIFICATIONS FOR AGRICULTURAL CENTER BUILDING

1. Change lead in wire and box to auditorium and conference room.
2. All wall plugs to be of double type.
3. All over head fixtures to have wall switches near door entrance except lights in closets—pull chain type there.
4. In long hall, put 2 front lights on one switch and back light on separate.
5. In entrance hall, put switch just inside double doors.
6. Plugs in dark room to be 1 foot above work bench.

O P S NEWS

OPS ASKS PRIVATE INDUSTRY TO AID IN FINDING JOBS

Mr. R. W. May, District Director of the Office of Price Stabilization in Jackson, today urged private industry in Mississippi to aid the agency in finding jobs for persons in the Jackson District who will be released on or about September 1 because of reduction in OPS operating funds. The Jackson District force will be reduced from about 78 persons to approximately 39, the District Director said.

A number of business and community specialists, attorneys, investigators, management technicians and skilled clerical personnel must be dropped in this district, Mr. May said. Many of these people were recruited from private industry, he pointed out, and many of them are highly trained specialists in their fields.

Their experience in business and in government service gives them a rare understanding of problems and procedures in fields affected by price regulation and industry will gain by re-employing them, the District Director said.

Firms interested in employing displaced OPS personnel in this area may contact the OPS District Director at the Jackson office by mail or by telephoning 5-9351. Resumes of experience and background will be furnished upon request and in reviews either at the Jackson district office or elsewhere will be arranged.

In a recent circular addressed to industry groups and trade associations throughout the country, Price Stabilizer Ellis Arnall pointed out that about 6,000 persons are being dropped by OPS on a national basis. The National Director asks private industry to cooperate in finding new employment for displaced people.

WARN RESTAURANTS TO POST PRICES

Eating and drinking establishments in Mississippi that have not filed and posted their ceiling prices as required by the restaurant regulation, CPR 133, are urged to do so immediately as the time limit has expired, according to an announcement by R. W. May, District Director of the Office of Price Stabilization in Jackson.

Restaurant ceiling price regulation 133 became effective April 7, 1952 and froze prices at the level prevailing during the week of February 3-9, 1952. The regulation requires that all Mississippi eating and drinking establishments post their prices and file a report with the Jackson District OPS office.

All restaurants that have not complied with the posting and filing requirements are delinquent and should take immediate action to get off the delinquent list, the District Director said.

Mr. May pointed out that the prices posted must be the same as filed with OPS, must be on official OPS poster in legible lettering and the poster placed near the main entrance of the establishment or in a place where it will be plainly visible to customers.

MOST FOOD COVERED

About 80 cents out of every dollar spent by the American housewife for food go to buy food products which are under ceiling price control, according to the office of Price Stabilization. These include meat and meat products; bread; cake, cookies, and other bakery products; milk, butter and cheese; cereals, coffee, tea and cocoa, oleomargarine, cooking and salad oils, and a long list of other important foods which housewives regularly buy in grocery stores.

Rural telephone service is valuable to farmers. It puts them in touch with supplies and services they need from town—and keeps them in touch with markets for their products.

Filling the need for rural telephones is one of Southern Bell's big jobs... and we're continuing to work hard at it.

In just the past 7 years Southern Bell has spent over 11 million dollars on rural telephone projects in Mississippi.

Today there are over 33 thousand rural telephones in the state—4 times as many as in 1945.

And the number keeps growing all the time!

Mississippi Towns Proving Value of Local Promotion

Twenty-one aggressive Mississippi communities have set about to prove to themselves and to their sister citizens of Mississippi just what can be accomplished in the way of self-improvement through proper organization and community-wide cooperation.

The first chapters of an interesting history of community development are contained in reports from that many communities which participated recently in the state's first annual "Community Travel Development" contest staged jointly by the Agricultural and Industrial Board and the oil industries of the state.

The little town of Booneville in Northeast Mississippi won the first prize of $1,000 for the most thorough and original program, with Collins second, and Gulfport in third place. Prizes already have been awarded all three in appropriate ceremonies, and plans are already underway by most of the participating communities to stage year-round travel development projects.

Booneville's Mayor Marion W. Smith's year-round committee has already revealed plans for using its winning prize money for permanent welcoming signs at the approaches to the city, for local park improvement, and for a unique project to line both sides of the highway approaches to the city with Magnolia trees. He hopes to encourage other communities along the U. S. 45 to take up the latter project and extend the plantings to the Gulf Coast.

Similar long range plans of permanently established community groups are being considered in other Mississippi communities which have seen the advantages of special promotions which they have staged as a feature of the statewide "Hospitality Month" observance. Next year's contest, A. & I. Board spokesmen believe, will draw even greater interest and will probably be based on year-round programs.

Communities, in addition to Booneville, which received prize money or honorable mention from the three out-of-state judges were Collins, Gulfport, Grenada, Laurel, Meridian, Montrose, Natchez and Summit.

Here are some of the things they did to merit special notices:

Collins organized a permanent committee, worked in all civic organizations, erected an information booth and welcome signs, entertained tourist guests with food, drink, and music; conducted clinics, painted up and cleaned up the city, distributed literature and souvenirs, and installed permanent lighting in a nearby roadside park.

Gulfport, which conducts a year-round tourist promotion program, erected a booth, set up special welcome signs, distributed souvenirs and literature, held clinics, conducted a paint-up, clean-up campaign, planned special events, worked with police on special courtesy ticket promotion, and planned special publicity and promotion events.

Laurel worked up a special calendar of events for the month, manned six "Hospitality Stops" for tourists, erected welcoming signs, drew in all Laurel civic organizations, made daily citations to persons demonstrating unusual courtesy, published a new brochure on the city, and arranged for 16 local stores to participate in a huge "Miss Hospitality" contest with a complete wardrobe for the winner, plus a cash donation for her trip.

Natchez, also a year-round tourist city, cited a number of special promotions, including the visit of General Douglas MacArthur, a nation-wide ABC radio network program on Natchez, window displays, establishing historical markers, stopping of tourists at the Natchez bridge, clinics, courtesy parking tickets, and the distribution of guest packs by a local hotel. A complete transcription of the network radio program was included in the Pilgrimage City's attractive report.

Honored at Shower

Miss Betty Benenutti, a bride of next week, was honored at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday night, August 6 at the home of Mrs. T. F. Monti on deMontluzin avenue.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Carrie Nolan Mrs. J. L. Lorenzen and Misses Cecile McCaleb and Irma Joan Lee.

The gifts were presented to the honoree, some in a large basket and others tied in a sheet.

—News has been received here that Sgt. Fred Capdepon, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Capdepon, is ill in a hospital in Germany.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Becker accompanied her daughter, Sister Rose Marie of the Sisters of St. Joseph to Baton Rouge. On her return, she stopped in New Orleans where she was the guest of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Heffernan, her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Andy J. Becker, and Mrs. Chester Swanner.

Everybody in Booneville pitched in to help that North Mississippi town win the state-wide "Community Travel Development" contest prize of $1,000 in July. Top Mayor Marion Smith, second from right, and Miss Myra Joyce Bishop, local "Miss Hospitality," greet a tourist couple from Missouri at the city's "Hospitality Booth" on U. S. Highway 45.

In the picture, below, two Booneville girls get an assist from Chief of Police Clyde Fulghum during a paint-up, clean-up campaign. The girls, top down, Betty Jane Price, and Gaye Oakley, are working on the City Hall. The county board of supervisors at the request of the local committee issued $50,000 in bonds for a paint-up and clean-up of the courthouse and jail.

The small town of Montrose, located on U. S. Highway 25 between Newton and Bay Springs, launched its program with a paint-up, clean-up drive, set up a "Hospitality Booth" for tourists, held a clinic, made a woman tourist they stopped "Queen For A Day," served a home cooked meal to a tourist couple, prepared a history of their town for distribution, and made use on a "Hospitality Certificate" for persons in the community who displayed unusual courtesy to visitors. The Travel Committee is making plans to continue the good work on a year-round basis.

Summit organized a permanent year-round committee, encouraged service stations to serve as Tourist Information Centers, set up welcome signs to all approaches to the city reading "Summit For Southern Hospitality," selected a "Miss Hospitality" cleaned up and painted up, served fresh lunches to without couples whom they stopped at their booth, provided visitors with corsages and boutonnieres, prepared special literature for distribution, and presented citations to local persons treating visitors with unusual courtesy and friendliness.

Grenada, devoting the entire month to the project, launched a year-round program, fated tourist guests daily throughout the month, erected hospitality month signs and placards, conducted tours of the city, held clinics, presented autographed hills, utilized all organizations of the community, prepared special literature, and attractive cards for distribution, and conducted an effective radio and newspaper publicity campaign to call attention to its attractions.

Most attractive scrapbook prepared for the judges was turned in by Meridian's Community Travel Development Committee, which placed considerable emphasis on its attractive "Hospitality Book" at the intersection of U. S. Highway 45 and 80, and stopped hundreds of automobiles.

The huge scrapbook, bound in highly polished native wood, contained pictures, numerous letters, newspaper clippings and other materials used in its attractive "Hospitality Month" program.

Other communities which turned in glowing reports of the work of their committees included: Brookhaven, Clarksdale, Ellenville, Fayette, Forest, Jackson, Lucedale, Magnolia, Ocean Springs, Seminary and West Point.

Marine OCS Course To Start September 30

The Sixth Marine Corps Officers Candidate course will begin on September 30, 1952 at the Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Virginia according to Sgt. P. J. Benvenuti, of the local Marine Corps Recruiting station.

The Marine Corps CC Program is designed to provide newly enrolled officer candidates with the necessary military training to qualify them as second lieutenants upon successful completion of the 10-week course.

Following the course, new lieutenants are sent to a five-month basic officer training course at Quantico before being assigned to duty with one of the many land, sea and air units of the corps.

Reorganized in the early months of 1951, this program has recently been stepped up due to the expansion of the Marine Corps from two to three divisions.

College seniors and graduates between the ages of 20 and 27, wishing to enroll for the Sixth
